Sometimes the best way to market your expertise is to demonstrate expertise through in-depth information. The Internet makes it easy. You can store and share vast amounts of information in your website and it's easy!

ACEN Library™ is a software application that makes it easy to put an unlimited number of files, of any file type, into your website. Like all of our applications, Library™ is web-based. That means that you can use it anywhere you go online.

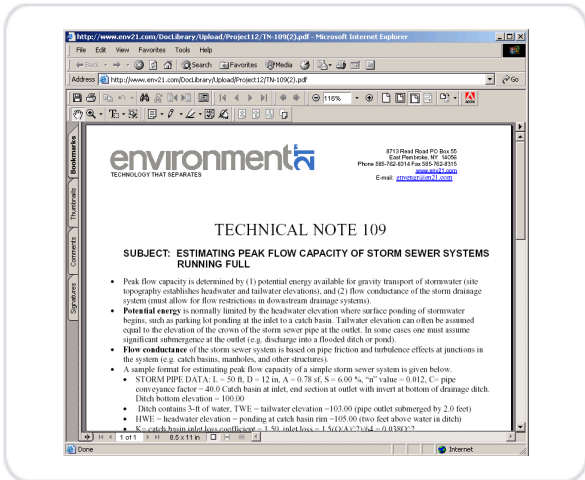

Simply create documents using the tools you like: Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc. Then use Library™ to put those documents into your website and organize them by topic. You can even set-up private documents and private topics. It's easy and it's fast. You can add hundreds of pages of depth to your website without creating hundreds of web pages. Library™ lets you tap into the power of the Internet now!
